November — days when we remember those who have gone to their eternal rest.

On Sunday November 4th. at the 10am Mass in St. Joseph's and the 11am Mass in Bundoran, we will especially remember all those who have died since November 1st. 2017. A special candle will be lit in each of their memories and given to their families at the end of Mass. We hope that each family will be represented at Mass and will use the candle for a period of remembrance and prayer in family homes during the remainder of the month. This is also a time when some special attention should be given to family graves and extra visits to cemeteries be part of November activity.

November Lists of the Dead.

Traditional lists for November Masses for the Dead are available in both Churches beside Parish Newsletters. Please fill out the list, add a stipend if you wish and leave in the November boxes in front of the Altars. November Masses for the Dead will be listed in the newsletter.

Re-Decorating of Churches:

Church Painting: During the last two weeks of November both Churches of the Parish will be re-decorated. The work will take two weeks so Sunday Mass in St Joseph's needs to be transferred to the Rock Hall on Sunday 25th of November, (Weekly masses will be cancelled for these two weeks), while weekend and daily Masses in Bundoran will take place in the Rosary Chapel.

Extra Collection for Pope Francis' Visit to Ireland on Nov 11th.

The second collection in all Churches throughout the Country on the above date will be donated to the funding necessary for the Pope's recent visit. The previous collections did not reach the financial targets that were necessary, so every parish in the country is being asked to make a donation.

Reminder - Booking Anniversary Masses:

To book an Anniversary Mass please place the Mass donation in an envelope with the name, address and proposed date of the requested Mass and leave in the Parish Office or either Sacristy.

This helps with ongoing administration in the Parish.

Clarification—The title "Priest in Residence" simply means a Priest is living in the Parish House. It does not mean that he is attached to the Parish as a curate or available whenever traditionally presumed. It should be understood that "Priests in Residence" are retired from full-time work and only available when it suits them. Most "Priests in Residence" are associated with MORE than one Parish.

As a retired Priest of the Diocese, Canon McGourty has kindly clarified his preferred contribution to local Parishes in the following manner—he will make himself available to Belleek / Garrison on Thursday and to Bundoran / the Rock on Tuesdays and Wednesdays thereby allowing both Parish Priests to have a day off duty. Other days of the week will be at his own preference. He will celebrate one of the three weekend Masses in Belleek / Garrison and one of the four weekend Masses in Bundoran / the Rock.

We thank Canon McGourty for taking care of the Rock First Friday calls.
