Christmas Thanks.

Many thanks to all who helped in any way with the preparation of the Churches for Christmas and with the presentation of the Christmas Masses—the Altar Societies, Sacristans, Readers, Eucharistic Ministers, Altar Servers and Choirs. Many of those who attended praised the quality of liturgies in both Churches. Such interest and quality is an indication of how important we see the Church presentation of the spiritual meaning of Christmas to really be.

Parish Envelopes.

The Parish Envelopes are being allocated at this time to those who have been using them. Should anyone else wish to have a set of envelopes, please contact a member of the Pastoral Committees, The Parish Office or Sacristies. The use of envelopes is very important to the Parish, especially in the area where tax rebates from the Revenue Commissioners is sought.

Some New Year Parish Arrangements

During the coming year the Bundoran Prayer Service Teams will present a Prayer Service on each Wednesday morning at 10am. to allow the Parish Priest have a day free from Parish commitments and when necessary attend to Diocesan obligations and meetings.

Due to the small number attending, the Saturday morning Mass or Prayer Service in Bundoran will be cancelled until May 1st.

Funeral Masses will NOT be affected by the above arrangements.

At St. Joseph's Ballyshannon, Canon McGourty P.E. will announce on a day to day basis his availability for Mass etc.

Parish Prayer Services.

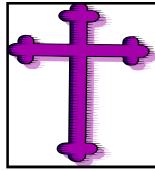

New Booklets for the Services have been prepared and will be available in both Churches from January 1st.

Please do NOT remove them from the Churches..

During the coming two months, an experimental entrance and recessional antiphon will be tested at Bundoran Daily Masses. If seen to be suitable, it will be recommended to other Churches.

We Wish Everyone a Very Happy and Prayerful New Year.
