Parish Office - 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time. November 19th, 2017.

Parish News / Parish News / Parish News.

For the past many years, our Parish has especially remembered those whose funeral Masses and / or burials have taken place since November 1st. of the previous year. We usually name the deceased, light a special candle in their memory and present the candle to their families at the end of Mass so that families can pray for them at home.

This we will do at the 10am Mass in St. Joseph's this Sunday November 19th. We invite the families of those who have gone to their heavenly reward, to join us for Mass. A similar Mass of Remembrance will take place in Bundoran next Sunday, November 26th. at the 11am Mass, when we will remember all who have died since November last year, when we will also light a candle in their memory and present the candle, after Mass, to the families.

At both Masses, one special candle will be lit to remember relatives and friends of the Parish who have died elsewhere.

Wednesday morning Masses (unless on the day of a funeral) will take place in St. Joseph's Church, The Rock, Ballyshannon. Prayer services will be held in Bundoran on Wednesday mornings.

Church Envelopes / Donations.

From January 2018, ALL contributions to collections will be presumed to facilitate Church needs and the lessening of the Parish Debt.

We are presently arranging the Parish Envelope List for 2018. If you have not been using the Parish Envelope System in the past and would like to do so in the future, please leave your name and address in the Sacristy or Parish Office before the end of November so that you can be added to the new listings.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament.

The Friday Adoration is being very well attended by not only all parts of our Parish but also by visitors as well. Much thanks is due to the organising committee who are monitoring the situation each hour, to ensure that all is well. There is no doubt that the blessing of the Lord will come upon us all as a result of this continuous prayer.

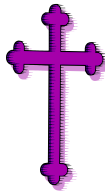

Christmas Time.

Christmas Day falls on Monday this year, thereby causing some extra liturgical pressure on clergy and churches, because all will take place at a weekend. This timing presumes eight Masses in our two Churches on the Sat night, Sun morning, Sun evening and Monday morning. We will do our best to provide what is necessary but all will depend on the kindness of visiting clergy. Pre-Christmas Parish activity will completely depend on activity organised by the laity. In the two weeks before Christmas, the Priest will concentrate on sacramental activity in our Churches, our three care-homes and the almost forty Parishioners throughout the Parish confined to their homes.
Any other activities will have to wait for attention at a later time.
